2. Brief on FRCV and the development program:

Indian Army released an invitation for Expression of Interest (Eoi) under the Make-I category of DAP 2020 (Buy Indian-IDDMM Category) for AFV-FRCV for the Indian Army in December 2024.

The Main Battle Tank (MBT) remains the pivot of modern warfare to cater for present and emerging threats. Tanks are inevitable elements in the land warfare, offering mobility, fire power, & protection thereby undermining the opponents defence.

Considering the threats and the modern warfare scenarios, Indian Army (IA) needs to induct a futuristic MBT, known as Future Ready Combat Vehicle (FRCV), by integrating the state of the art technologies on the tank platforms. To keep the technology contemporary, to cater for technological pace and changes and to ensure ability to attempt suitable upgrades, Indian Army (IA) plans to develop a total of 1770 FRCVs by following a spiral development approach in three phases (590 FRCVs in Phase-I, 590 FRCVs in phase - II & 590 FRCVs in phase- III). Requirement of quantity 590 FRCVs in Phase-I is a firm requirement.

For the latest version of DAP 2020 (Buy Indian-IDDMM), please visit website of Ministry of Defence-India: <https://mod.gov.in/dod/en/defence-procurement-proc-dap>
